

Hyde War Memorial Hall 'Art Space' welcomes back

Angela Perrett, presenting mixed media paintings from her studio at Hillview, Linwood.

"My work is about surface and time accompanied by an interaction with forces natural and man-made. The semi-abstract images have evolved out of an emotional involvement with surface qualities and colour, inspired initially by the rock formations of Portland, Dorset. Moving to the New Forest has broadened my horizons further. The vast expanses of lush heather, wide open spaces, dense forestation, incredible contrasts of light and shade accompanied by glorious colours, all aspects have affected my work."

Angela's pictures are for sale and each is labelled and priced separately.
